Presidential Donor Societies

Michigan State University recognizes and values our relationships with lifelong donors whose visionary leadership helps turn our shared priorities into reality. Presidential donor societies recognize lifetime giving to MSU.

Individuals are inducted into one of eight societies named in honor of prominent leaders in the history of MSU. Like these forward-thinking leaders, presidential donor society members have committed their talent, their time and their personal resources to propel Michigan State forward beyond today's challenges toward the discoveries of tomorrow.

Lifetime donor society commitments can be made over a five-year period. Donors may be acknowledged with a personalized crystal memento and are invited to special events and functions.

Planned Gifts

Learn how to help support Michigan State University through a legacy gift to help preserve our future. Legacy, or planned gifts, can help you support MSU for generations to come. There are many easy ways to give. You can name MSU as a beneficiary in your will, fund a gift that pays you and/or your loved ones a guaranteed stream of lifetime income, or list MSU as a beneficiary of all, or part, of your retirement plan assets.

It can take time and effort to create an effective plan for your future. We would like to help by discussing with you the gift options that best suit your financial needs and philanthropic goals. To learn more, please contact the Office of Gift Planning at Michigan State University. We are here to help you explore all your giving options.

- I have not previously informed you, but I have already included MSU in my estate plan through my will or trust.
- I would like to learn how I can remember MSU in my estate plan. Please have a gift planning advisor from the MSU Office of Gift Planning contact me.
